Thanks for getting this started Jeff!

Had a few comments that I've noted in red font. I've never been able to find the redline-strikeout editing option in Powerpoint, so I've included some notes in bracketed & italicized red font, some of which include suggested edits to a sentence. (So hopefully it make sense...just give me a ring if not.)

Cle,

This is that same as the hard copy I dropped on your chair for you review. I appreciate your comments.
